

INTERNATIONAL PROPERTY SERVICE SCOOPS AWARD

AWARD WINNING NE INTERNATIONAL REMOVALS

Best Practice UK is delighted to introduce the deserving recipients of the annual BA International Property Services Award 2008/09 as Neil & Emily Richardson International Removals, who provide a comprehensive service in both the United Kingdom and Portugal.

Moving can be a stressful experience, whether the move is local, national or international. Established in 2003, Neil & Emily Richardson Removals offer a personal, professional service which effectively takes the stress out of moving home. Ensuring a professional service from first point of contact, which is usually an initial phone call from the client, through to the delivery of all of their treasured possessions to their newly acquired property.

Secured storage options are available both long and short term in Portugal and the UK within secure alarmed premises. Members of the British-Portuguese Chamber of Commerce, Neil & Emily can provide a range of services including: Stress free removal services, BAR trained packing service, Portugal & UK Storage Solutions local, national and international removals. These will be carried out after an initial consultation process has been undertaken. Neil, Emily or one of their trusted UK agents will visit the clients' home for this consultancy and discuss the storage/removal requirements that are needed in Portugal. Once this has happened, the client can concentrate on the legalities whilst the removal company move their possessions in a quick efficient manner, up keeping with the highest professionalism throughout.

Caring for possessions is second nature. Neil and Emily can ensure that their removals team will care for them as if they were their own. Advised along the way, the clients is aware of all collection dates, delivery times and of any rare delays that may occur.

All third parties used by the company in the UK are thoroughly checked and trusted. If they were not trustworthy, Emily was keen to point out that the company would not use them.

The company operate a range of vehicles sizes to overcome access difficulties in Portugal and the UK, and can guarantee the safe delivery of all possessions. The proprietors, Neil and Emily are contactable seven days a week to answer any queries the client may have.

For further information regarding the award winning company and their exceptional services, please call 00351 281 963 191 or 01268 523029.

Email: neilandem@sapo.pt or visit www.neinternationalremovals.com

